Xara 3D Maker v7.0.0.415 crack setup freeAMD Zen processors will not be launching until 2019 AMD has said there is no E3 in 2016, and the company will not be launching its next-gen Zen architecture until 2019. This of course comes from AMD's CEO, Lisa Su, as part of her speech at the Goldman Sachs 10-K. "As we move into the middle of 2017, there will be no E3 in 2016," AMD has a conference scheduled for September, but she doesn't think there will be anything announced before the end of the year. In fact, she thinks 2017 is the last year we should expect the company to show off Zen. If we make it to 2019, the Zen architecture would be an architectural play only. AMD was hoping to make it through 2017 with a decent amount of revenue, but the recent announcement of layoffs have left investors worried about the company's future. The latest pair of updates haven't made them too happier, as layoffs included OEMs engineers, who could be in the position to know what AMD is planning for Zen.Get the biggest stories sent straight to your inbox Sign up for regular updates and breaking news from WalesOnline Thank you for subscribing We have more 3da54e8ca3
